NOTE

10-19-72

You were previously advised the wife of Senator Philip A. Hart (Democrat) and three other women planned to depart New York City (NYC) on 10-18-72 enroute to Hanoi, North Vietnam.

Attached reports Mrs. Hart and two of the women had confirmed reservations on Scandinavian Airline Service (SAS) flight to leave NYC on evening of 10-18-72; however, there is no indication they actually departed as scheduled. Our New York Office is closely following this matter for further developments. (U)

FOUR FORTY FIVE PM ON OCTOBER TWENTY FIVE , SEVENTY TWO FOUR ATTORNEYS RETURNED FROM NORTH VIETNAM AND THAT THEY BROUGHT ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY SIX LETTERS FROM PRISONERS OF WAR (POW'S), CURRENTLY BEING HELD BY NORTH VIETNAM. WEISS THEN STATED THAT THE COMMITTEE OF LIASION WITH FAMILIES OF SERVICEMEN DETAINED IN NORTH VIETNAM (COLIFAM) WILL SEE TO IT THAT THESE LETTERS ARE FORWARDED TO THE APPROPRIATE POW FAMILY. WEISS MENTIONED THAT COLIFAM IS ATTEMPTING TO ARRANGE A STEADY STREAM OF UNITED STATES CITIZENS TO TRAVEL TO HANOI BUT WEISS DID NOT MENTION THE REASON FOR THEIR TRAVEL; NOR WAS THERE ANY MENTION OF ADDITIONAL POW'S TO BE RELEASED BY NORTH VIETNAM IN THE NEAR FUTURE. WEISS THEN INTRODUCED THE ABOVE IDENTIFIED THREE INDIVIDUALS. HART, RUKEYSER AND GOODWIN GENERALLY STATED THAT THEY WERE GOING TO HANOI TO PERSONALLY WITNESS THE DEVASTATION INFLECTED ON NORTH VIETNAM BY THE UNITED STATES BOMBINGS. RUKEYSER AND GOODWIN IDENTIFIED THEMSELVES AS "POETS AND WRITERS" AND IMPLIED THE POSSIBILITY OF A SPEAKING TOUR CONCERNING THEIR EYEWITNESS ACCOUNTS UPON THEIR RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES. AT APPROXIMATELY EIGHT TEN PM ON OCTOBER TWENTY FIVE , SEVENTY TWO THE PRESS CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.

ON OCTOBER FIVE ONE NINE SEVEN TWO, A SOURCE WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED THAT CORA WEISS WHO IS PUBLICALLY KNOWN AS CO DASH CHAIRMAN OF COLIFAM, AND FORMER UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERAL RAMSEY CLARK HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE CHURCH OF THE UNITED NATIONS, SEVEN SEVEN SEVEN UN PLAZA, NYC, THIS DATE. U-

CLARK BEGAN PRESS CONFERENCE BY INTRODUCING HIMSELF AND SPEAKING OF HIS RECENT TRIP TO HANOI NORTH VIETNAM. CLARK ADVISED HE JOINED MAI IN SEPTEMBER LAST, AND THAT HE ENDORSES MAI POLICIES. CLARK DEFINED MAI FOR PRESS REPRESENTATIVES AS AN ORGANIZATION WHICH WOULD SEND MEDICAL SUPPLIES AND EQUIPMENT TO THE PEOPLE OF INDOCHINA WHO HAVE BEEN INJURED AS A RESULT OF RECENT US BOMBING IN INDOCHINA. WHEN ASKED BY REPRESENTATIVE OF ABC NEWS TO EXPRESS HIS OPINIONS CONCERNING THE POSSIBILITIES OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES BEING USED BY NORTH VIETNAM GOVERNMENT TO TREAT THEIR OWN SOLDIERS, CLARK ADVISED HE SAW NO REASON WHY MEDICAL AID COULD NOT BE USED BY THE NORTH VIETNAMESE AS WELL, SINCE THE US GOVERNMENT WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR INJURIES. CLARK FURTHER ANNOUNCED THAT FOUR MEDICAL DOCTORS DEPARTED NY ON OCTOBER FOUR LAST, TO TRAVEL TO HANOI

On October 3, 1972, [REDACTED] advised the parents of Prisoner of War [REDACTED]
U.S. Navy, received a luncheon invitation from a person by the name of CORA WEISS. WEISS indicated she was in Philadelphia, Pa., for the luncheon being held at the residence of [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Source stated [REDACTED] indicated she planned to attend the luncheon.

CORA WEISS

all
b7c
E.O. 12812-2 [REDACTED] advised on January 27, 1970, that CORA WEISS was one of the Co-Chairmen of the Committee Of Liaison With Families Of Servicemen detained in North Vietnam (COLIFAM).

On October 6, 1972, "The Evening Bulletin", a daily newspaper in Philadelphia, Pa., described CORA WEISS as a well known activist in the peace movement and an outspoken critic of the Vietnam War.

[REDACTED]

WSP is a National Women's Organization which has demonstrated against nuclear testing, the War in Vietnam and the draft.

COMMITTEE OF LIAISON WITH FAMILIES OF SERVICEMEN DETAINED IN NORTH VIETNAM (COLIFAM)

E.O. 12812-2
(COLIFAM) according to [REDACTED] will seek to facilitate communication between families in the United States and servicemen now imprisoned in North Vietnam. The committee will receive letters from servicemen and forward them through domestic mails, thereby decreasing past problems in receipt of such mail. COLIFAM will also forward letters to North Vietnam at the request of relatives.

The October 6, 1972 issue of "The Evening Bulletin", a daily newspaper distributed in Philadelphia, Pa. contained an article captioned, "War, Critics Both Unique in U.S. History." The article stated that CORA WEISS was in Philadelphia this week to talk about the war and about the three men she brought back with her. "The Evening Bulletin" referred to WEISS as being an outspoken critic of the Vietnam War and of the NIXON Administration's handling of that war.

The article continued by saying that when the North Vietnamese recently decided to release three American Prisoners of War being held in Hanoi, a representative of the North Vietnamese government telephoned CORA WEISS and told her to come and get them. WEISS is quoted as speculating that the North Vietnamese released the three men at this time simply to remind the American people that the war is still going on.

The three Americans mentioned in the article were MARK GARTLEY, NORRIS CHARLES and ED ELIAS. WEISS is quoted as saying she did not know why "they picked these three men to release because they represented different periods of American bombing and they come from different socio-economic backgrounds."

The rest of the article was devoted to praising CORA WEISS for her work in arranging prisoner - release. The article ends by saying that CORA WEISS is unique because this chapter of American history is unique. It is not a chapter, or a war, to be proud of and according to WEISS, "We've been involved in this war for fifteen years now. What the hell for?"

[REDACTED] advised on October 11, 1972 that [REDACTED] attended a peace conference held on October 3, 1972 by CORA WEISS, but did not attend the luncheon. Source stated [REDACTED] were not very enthusiastic about WEISS' statements and declined the luncheon invitation. There was no indication that WEISS had a letter from their son and they left after the peace conference.

ON OCTOBER SEVENTEEN, SEVENTYTWO, A SOURCE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED THAT PEARCE GARDNER, MORRIS SIMON AND PETER WOLF, IDENTIFIED AS MEMBERS OF THE HARVARD UNIVERSITY MEDICAL FACULTY WHO RECENTLY TRAVELED TO HANOI, NORTH VIETNAM ALONG WITH DR. GEORGE ROSS, FROM SAN FRANCISCO AREA, ARRIVED AT JFK INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (JFK), NYC, AT FOUR PM, OCTOBER SEVENTEEN, SEVENTYTWO, ABOARD PAN AMERICAN AIRLINES (PAA) FLIGHT EIGHT ZERO ZERO FROM SAN FRANCISCO. UPON DEPARTURE FROM THIS FLIGHT, GARDNER, SIMON AND WOLF APPEARED FOR APPROXIMATELY FIFTEEN MINUTES BEFORE THE PRESS ASSEMBLED NEAR AREA "C" OF THE PAA TERMINAL, JFK. IN CONVERSATION WITH THE PRESS, THE DOCTORS STATED THAT THE PURPOSE OF THEIR TRIP TO HANOI WAS TO CHECK ON THE HEALTH OF THE PRISONERS OF WAR (POWS) CURRENTLY BEING HELD BY HANOI. MORRIS SIMON STATED THAT THEY SAW SEVERAL OF THE POWS AND THEY APPEAR TO BE IN GOOD SPIRITS, CONTENT AND HAPPY. SIMON MENTIONED THAT IN CONVERSATION WITH SEVERAL OF THE POWS, THEY ALL STATED THAT UPON BEING CAPTURED, THEY WERE IMMEDIATELY GIVEN TEA, FOOD AND MEDICAL ATTENTION. SIMON STATED IT WAS THE CONSENSUS OF THE DOCTORS WHO TRAVELED TO HANOI THAT THE POWS THEY SAW APPEARED TO BE IN EXCELLENT HEALTH.

SIMON NEXT SPOKE OF THE HEAVY BOMBING BEING CONDUCTED BY THE US GOVERNMENT AROUND HANOI AND THE EXTENSIVE DAMAGE BEING DONE. SIMON MENTIONED THE PRESENCE OF SEVERAL UNEXPLODED BOMBS WITHIN THE VICINITY OF HANOI AND AND BRIEFLY DISCUSSED THE DAMAGE DONE BY U.S. BOMBS TO THE FRENCH EMBASSY IN HANOI A COUPLE OF DAYS AGO.

THE SOURCE FURTHER ADVISED THAT THE RETURNING THREE DOCTORS MADE NO MENTION OF ANY POWS BEING RELEASED BY HANOI IN THE NEAR FUTURE. SOURCE ALSO STATED THAT CORA WEISS, ONE OF THE CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE COLIFAM, WAS ON HAND TO GREET GARDNER, WOLF AND SIMON ON THEIR RETURN TO NYC.

COLIFAM IS PUBLICLY KNOWN AS AN ORGANIZATION BASED IN NYC THAT HAS, IN THE PAST, BEEN ENGAGED IN TRANSPORTING CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN US POWS IN NORTH VIETNAM AND AND THEIR FAMILIES IN THE US.

IN SEPTEMBER, SEVENTY TWO, REPRESENTATIVES OF COLIFAM ESCORTED THREE POWS RELEASED BY HANOI BACK TO THE UNITED STATES.

ReBucab 9/16/72; COPcab 9/27/72.

The stopover of captioned group in Copenhagen on 9/28/72 generally followed the outline set forth in reCOPcab.

They arrived on the morning of 9/28/72 and were welcomed by the Deputy Chief of Mission, who was the senior Embassy official. He offered them the use of military transportation for their return, which they declined for fear of reprisals against others who are still being held prisoner. They eventually departed Copenhagen aboard SAS flight SK 911 at 3:20 PM.

Soon after arrival, the group had a press conference in an airport room set aside for that purpose. Embassy officials who were present said that the briefing generally went quite smoothly and that the POWs were reserved in their comments. After the conference, the POW group were separated from the press and were taken to lunch and on a sightseeing tour prior to their

Pursuant to instructions from the Department of Defense, military uniforms were placed aboard the plane for the three POWs and, as the Bureau is aware, when they disembarked at New York, they were in uniform.

Press comments here were generally restrained and favorable.

Rowland Special EO 12958

You were previously advised of four lawyers who departed New York City (NYC) by air on 10/11/72 enroute to Hanoi, North Vietnam, as representatives of Lawyers Committee on American Policy Towards Vietnam (LCAPTIV).

Attached reports the four lawyers, who also are representatives of the Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam (COLIFAM), returned to NYC on 10/25/72. They held a closed press conference. Reporters were given press release showing lawyers' observations and opinions on the Vietnam war and views of North Vietnamese officials. North Vietnamese officials repeatedly expressed a desire for peace, according to the lawyers, but only on terms of total U. S. withdrawal from Indochina, U. S. acceptance of a specified coalition government in South Vietnam and U. S. agreement to participate in reconstruction of both North and South Vietnam. All prisoners of war reportedly would be released upon U. S. agreement to these points.

Copy of attached sent Internal Security Division of the Department. Data in attached sent by teletype to the President, State Department, Central Intelligence Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency and the military; copies to the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General by messenger.

Committee of Liaison with Families
of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam

On September 13, 1972 a fourth confidential source who is in a position to furnish reliable information, advised that on this date at 7 PM prior to their departure for Hanoi, David Dellinger, Cora Weiss and other members of the COLIFAM group going to Hanoi held a Press Conference in the SAS First Class Lounge, JFK, New York City. Cora Weiss began the Press Conference by stating that Barney Elias the family representative for POW Edward Elias would not be accompanying the COLIFAM group to Hanoi due to last minute personal problems. Weiss stated that she is carrying a message from Elias's family and wife and she (Weiss) would personally deliver these messages to Elias upon arrival in Hanoi. (unclassified)

On September 13, 1972 the fourth source made available the identity of the nine individuals traveling to Hanoi as follows: 1) David Tyre Dellinger 2) Cora Weiss, 3) Reverend William Sloane Coffin, 4) Mrs. Olga Charles, 5) Mrs. Minnie Lee Gartley, 6) Reverend Harry Bury, 7) Peter J. Arnett, 8) Rick Falk, 9) Mrs. Mary Anne Hamilton.

In the September 14, 1972 issue of the "New York Times" a local New York City newspaper in an article on page 12, column 4, concerning the above mentioned Hanoi trip, Reverend William Sloane Coffin, Jr. was described as a "veteran peace movement spokesman". (unclassified)

Mrs. Olga Charles is known publicly as the wife of POW Norris Charles. (unclassified)

Mrs. Minnie Lee Gartley is known publicly as the mother of POW Markham Gartley. (unclassified)

On September 25, 1972 a fifth confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that currently Peter J. Arnett is an Associated Press reporter. Arnett won a Pulitzer Prize in 1966 for his reporting on Vietnam. (unclassified)

On October 16, 1972 a sixth confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Richard Falk is a Professor of International Law at Princetown University and affiliated with the Lawyer's Committee on American Policy Toward Vietnam. (LCAPTV)

The LCAPTV is publically known as a group of lawyers who come together in the Spring of 1965 to prepare a legal brief which deals with the illegality of American intervention in Vietnam. This brief is based on National Law and Constitutional Law aspects of this intervention. (unclassified)

On October 16, 1972 the sixth confidential source advised that Mary Anne Hamilton was a staff member of the "Guardian" in 1968.

The "Guardian" is self-described as an independent radical news weekly which takes a strong left position but is not identified with any organized group. It is considered to be the largest radical weekly in America. (unclassified)

On September 13, 1972 SAS of the FBI observed David Dellinger, Cora Weiss, Reverend William Sloane Coffin, Jr. Mrs. Olga Charles, and Mrs. Minnie Lee Gartley entering the departure gate on this date for SAS Flight 912 for Copenhagen, Denmark. Four other individuals were also observed entering the departure gate with the above observed individuals. (unclassified)

York City another press conference will be held with the POWS possibly upon arrival at JFK, New York City. At the New York City press conference, statements will be made and POW photographs (supra) will be released to the Press. du

On September 25, 1972 the fourth confidential source learned that during the evening of September 24, 1972 the COLIFAM group with the three released POWS left Hanoi, North Vietnam for Nanning China. On September 26, 1972 they arrived at Peking, China and are expected to arrive at Moscow, Russia on the morning of September 27, 1972. On September 28, 1972 this group will fly from Moscow to Copenhagen, Denmark and then on to the United States aboard SAS Flight 911 scheduled to arrive at JFK, New York City at 7 PM on September 28, 1972.

On September 27, 1972 the fourth source learned that upon the arrival at Copenhagen, Denmark from Moscow on September 28, 1972 this group plans to hold an international press conference with the released POWS and that another press conference will be held at JFK, New York City upon their arrival in the United States.

At 6:30 PM on September 28, 1972 SAS of the FBI observed that the arrival area for SAS Flight 911 carrying the COLIFAM group and the released POWS was under "heavy security" with various military personnel and police on the scene. It was noted that two areas had been cordoned off in the arrival area for SAS Flight 911, one being for the Press, the other for the POW families and other individuals accompanying the POW families. Microphones were observed before the press section indicating a possible Press Conference by the COLIFAM group upon arrival. At 6:45 PM members of the POW families and other individuals were escorted to their cordoned off area. Shortly after their arrival at their cordoned off area some individuals accompanying the POW families displayed signs which read "Free POWS on both sides by Ending War" and "End of Thieu Support Bring GIs Home".

Now". At 6:58 PM SAS Flight 911 landed at the designated area set up for this flight. Security immediately tightened around the rear entrance of this plane and it was noted at this time that the POW families were observed proceeding to the disembarkation ramp set up at the rear of the plane. At approximately 7:15 PM members of the Press who accompanied the COLIFAM group to Hanoi and back to the United States with the released POWS disembarked from the rear of SAS Flight 911. At 7:30 PM the three released POWS disembarked from the rear entrance of the aircraft and were immediately surrounded by their families and loved ones. Shortly after the POWS disembarked a caravan of cars driven by military personnel approached the rear of the plane. Before the arrival of the caravan, POWS Norris Charles and Markham Gartley approached the Press section with some members of their family. They waved and spoke briefly but were not heard as the microphones in front of the Press section were not operating. At approximately 7:38 PM the released POWS and their families were escorted to the waiting cars and then left the area. It was noted that Mrs. Charles, mother of Norris Charles who accompanied her son to the press section (supra) exhibited an anti-war sign to the press assembled there. After the departure of the POWS and their families Cora Weiss, David Dellinger and Reverend William Sloane Coffin, Jr. then spoke to the press assembled at the arrival area. These individuals generally made statements which were critical of the political and military tactics utilized by the United States in regaining custody of the POWS. Dellinger announced that a press conference would be held immediately at the Press Room at the International Arrivals Building (IAB) JFK, New York City. Dellinger, Weiss and Coffin then left the arrival area of SAS Flight 911 at 7:45 PM. (unclassified)

On September 28, 1972 SAS of the FBI learned that at 8:10 PM Richard Falk self-identified as a Professor of International Law, Princetown University, and one of the COLIFAM group who traveled to Hanoi began the press conference called by Dellinger at the IAB Press Room. Falk emphasized the constant harrassment by the United States Government every step of their journey home from Hanoi with the released POWS. Falk stated that the highlight of the Government's harrassment was evident tonight by the military not allowing the POWS to speak to the assembled press and immediately upon their arrival escorting them away. Reverend William Sloane Coffin next spoke and disclosed the presence of a military representative and two state department officials who accompanied them home. Coffin stated that approximately one and one-half hours from JFK the military representative aboard SAS Flight 911 produced "tailor-made uniforms" for the POWS to wear when disembarking at JFK. Cora Weiss then spoke stating that the United States Government promised the COLIFAM group that upon their arrival at JFK the Government would allow the returning POWS to appear before the Press and they would make available space for the POWS to have a reunion with their families. Weiss stated that when the military uniforms were produced by the military representative accompanying them she knew then that none of the Government's promises would be kept. Weiss next stated that POW Edward Elias fully cooperated with the military and had "deceived" them. The press immediately asked Weiss her meaning of "deceive". Weiss in answer to the press inquiry stated that Elias made certain statements and signed certain documents in Hanoi but Elias upon leaving Hanoi enroute back to the United States did a complete change of face. At this point others in the COLIFAM group interrupted and stated that this proves that the POWS were not brainwashed or released for their cooperation with the North Vietnamese. Dellinger followed Weiss and again criticized the methods employed by the United States in taking custody of the released POWS. Dellinger emphasized on numerous occasions that the North Vietnamese representatives informed him that by the release of these POWS they have taken the first step in their peace offensive and should the United States act favorably to this step, these representatives implied the possibility of future POW releases. Dellinger stated that the Government tactics evident tonight regarding the returning POWS possibly endangered any chance of future POW releases or a settlement in the war. At the conclusion of the press conference at 8:45 PM Dellinger again stated that the future release of POWS is still a hope.

Committee of Liaison with Families
of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The PCPJ is self-described as an organization consisting of over 100 organizations using massive civil disobedience to combat war, racism, poverty and repression. Its national office is located at 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Room 527. (unclassified)

Cora Weiss is publicly known as one of the leaders of the Women's Strike for Peace and currently one of the co-chairman of COLIFAM. (unclassified)

COLIFAM is a publicly known peace activist group with the expressed objective of acting as liaison between the families of United States POWS and the North Vietnamese Government. (unclassified)

The above mentioned SA of the FBI further learned on September 9, 1972 that at 11:20 AM on this date David Dellinger and Cora Weiss of COLIFAM followed by the families of the three POWS soon to be released by North Vietnam entered the Washington Room of the Statler-Hilton Hotel. Cora Weiss began the Press conference by introducing the families of the POWS. The POWS were identified as 1) Lieutenant Markham L. Gartley, age 28, 2) Lieutenant Norris Charles, age 27 both of the Navy and 3) Major Edward K. Elias, age 34 an Air Force officer. Dellinger spoke next and announced that upon the invitation of the North Vietnamese Government one representative of each POW family would be leaving along with COLIFAM representatives on September 13, 1972 to travel to Hanoi, North Vietnam to escort the three released POWS home. Various representatives of the POWS' families then spoke after Dellinger and they generally made statements which were expressions of gratitude to the COLIFAM organization and the North Vietnamese Government for making the release possible. On September 12, 1972 the second confidential source made available the proposed return itinerary of the above group back to the United States with the three released POWS. This source pointed out that their return itinerary is still tentative and that this source has no information regarding a connecting flight from Hanoi to Moscow, Russia. This group's return itinerary starts at Moscow and is as follows:

On September 24, 1972 at 11:05 AM this group along with the three released POWS (supra) will leave Moscow, Russia on Aeroflot Flight 217 and will arrive at Stockholm, Sweden at 11:10 AM also on September 24, 1972 due to a time change. At 1:10 PM on September 25, 1972 they will leave Stockholm, Sweden on SAS Flight 429 scheduled to arrive at Copenhagen, Denmark at 2:20 PM on September 25, 1972. They will leave Copenhagen on SAS Flight 911 which will arrive at JFK, New York City at 7 PM on September 25, 1972.

On September 12, 1972 the first confidential source advised that Cora Weiss, David Dellinger and other COLIFAM representatives continue to work on the Hanoi trip. [REDACTED] Dellinger and WEISS plan to call a press conference upon their return from Hanoi to the United States with the POWS. [REDACTED]

August 18, 1972

Dear families:

Former Attorney General Ramsey Clark brought back this letter for you, along with 101 others.

While in North Vietnam he observed severe damage to many civilian targets including dikes, hospitals, schools and village hamlets.

As you may have heard or read, Mr. Clark also recorded a conversation he had with ten captured pilots in which they urged families to correspond with all POW's through this Committee. They also specified that the Pentagon's long form letter is not permitted. As you know, we have repeatedly stated for the past 2½ years that we are available for any family member who wishes to correspond with their captured relative and we have always provided the necessary forms. It was because of the unfortunate government interference with the mails that this channel was set up for hand delivery of mail to and from those men who are captured in Vietnam.

It is also unfortunate that while the government espouses policies which allegedly are for the benefit of the prisoners, they act in ways which diametrically oppose that goal and, in fact, lengthen their separation from you under increasingly difficult conditions.

We continue our service in your and the prisoners' interests, mindful that the continued, unmerciful bombing, increasing in tonnage and destruction all the time, may make all our work and your hopes in vain.

Sincerely,
Cora Weiss

Dear Families,

As you know we just returned from Hanoi with Lt. Charles, Lt. Gartley and Major Elias. We are in great shape and we enjoyed each others company for the week we spent in North Vietnam and during the trip home via China.

A full report on our trip, the details of their release and our views as to the future will soon be available.

In the meantime, we also brought back this mail for you. There were 278 letters this month with many of the men sending two letters each. There are two reasons for this drop in the number of men writing. The released men tell us that what we have known all along is, in fact, true; that a number of men simply don't want to write. The other reason, however, is more significant. We learned, by seeing the evidence, of a substantial effort to get secret writing material into North Vietnam with chemicals and special papers. A member of our delegation, the Rev. William Sloan Coffin, has had personal experience with this form of equipment when he was engaged in intelligence activity for the United States government years ago. Because of this attempt to use POW's in acts of espionage, the North Vietnamese government is being especially careful in watching in- and out-going mail for secret codes and writing techniques. This slows or prevents mail from reaching both you and your loved ones. It puts mail communication, as well as receipt of packages, in serious jeopardy. The Vietnamese have assured us they want to see packages and mail continue to flow in the interests of both the pilots and their families.

We saw seven other pilots when we were in Hanoi. Several of them begged us to tell families, "not to play games" with packages and mail. We assured them we felt this was not the act of any individual family but was quite professional in nature.

We will continue to help the pilots in every way we can and feel confident that our efforts will succeed if these harmful acts are stopped at once. We know you care, so let us work together to do something about it.

Sincerely

David Dellinger
